

INSIDE FOOTBALL

REVEALS MANCHESTER UNITED'S WHIPPLED SCOT FRONT
Draw a farce, rage South Americans

The draw

Watford expect heavy response

We keep you fully in the picture

Continued from page 1
The match was a tactical battle, with both sides looking to control the tempo. The home side's attack was hampered by a solid defensive display, while the visitors' midfield was unable to create any real danger.

We have seen the current state of the game, and it is clear that both sides are looking to improve. The draw is a disappointment for both, but it is a result that can be expected in a game of this nature.

The game will continue in the same vein, with both sides looking to improve. The draw is a disappointment for both, but it is a result that can be expected in a game of this nature.